THE GREAT GET TOGETHER

IN HONOUR OF JO COX

“While we celebrate our diversity, what surprises me time and time again... is that we are far more united and have far more in common with each other than things that divide us.” Jo Cox MP

Organised by Peace Through Folk with The Foxlowe Arts Centre in Leek Sunday 24th June

In June 2017, we took part in an event that celebrated the life of the late Jo Cox and was part of the biggest collection of neighbourhood celebrations since the Jubilee street parties. We are doing it again and we want people from all walks of life to join in.

We're inviting people to get together at The Foxlowe Arts Centre in Leek with their friends to share food and celebrate all that we hold in common. It's going to be a garden party and picnic with a wide range of music and singing, including Folk, Blues, Americana, and even classical .

What matters is that we have fun and bring our community closer together through our music and songs .

- * We are appealing for all sorts of entertainers, singers, musicians and groups to do a concert spot or just sing a few songs or play tunes in the sing-arounds and sessions.
- * The Peace through Folk Choir will be holding an open rehearsal and workshop in the afternoon, followed by a concert performance. We are inviting singers from other choirs to come and join us as whole choirs or as individuals. All welcome.
- * Spaces will be available for creative artists and makers to display their work and demonstrate their art-forms.
- * Admission 'ticket' will be an in date packaged or canned item for Leek Food Bank
- * There will also be a charity cash collection in aid of The Foxlowe Trust, UNHCR, War Child, Save The Children, Médecins Sans Frontières and the Tim Parry - Jonathan Ball Foundation For Peace.
- * 'Peace through Folk' is a not for profit trust that exists to celebrate Peace, Friendship and Reconciliation, through music and the performing arts.

If you are a singer, musician, a band, a choir or a creative artist let us know if you would like to take part
